Dear Parent/Carer

As we approach the end of a difficult year, I know many of you will be keen to know what arrangements Bridgend schools will be putting in place for January 2021. I trust this letter will provide helpful information in respect of start-of-term arrangements in your child's school.

As per Welsh Government guidance, all Bridgend schools will be using Monday 4 January and Tuesday 5 January to assess levels of available staff, review risk assessments and continue to ensure the school is once again a safe environment for learners.

This means that, on these two days, no learners will be in school. It also means that direct online learning opportunities will not be provided by individual schools for their pupils on 4 and 5 January.

On 6, 7 and 8 January, all Bridgend infant, junior, primary and special schools, with primary school age children, will be providing on-site support for the children of critical workers only.

In Bridgend, a critical worker is defined as someone who works for one of the following organisations:

- Health
- Social care
- Fire and rescue service
- Police
- Ambulance service
- Education

Much in the same way as we have done this week (ie using the same eligibility criteria), critical workers are advised that, if your child is of a primary school age, on Monday 4 January, your child's school will ask you to let them know if your child will be attending school on 6, 7 and 8 January.

This is necessary to allow the local authority to plan appropriate school meal and learner transport provision.

There is no on-site/in-school provision for the children of critical workers in any Bridgend secondary school on 6, 7 or 8 January.

Pupils who will be learning from home on 6, 7 and 8 January will receive online learning activities from their schools. Bridgend schools who have previously provided 'live' sessions will not be providing this during this 3 day period.

From Monday 11 January, learners will start to return to school.

YG Bro Ogwr has made the decision they will welcome ALL pupils back on Monday 11th January.

Thank you, once again, for your ongoing support and patience.

Take care – and have a safe Christmas

Yours sincerely
